TEAM NAUTIQUE DOMINATES THE WISCONSIN PRO WAKEBOARD TOUR STOP

Orlando, FLA (June 22, 2009) – This past weekend, Team Nautique battled hard at the Pro Wakeboard Tour stop held in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin to claim two first place victories.

Canadian wakeboarding star and Team Nautique rider Aaron Rathy rode strong all weekend and was awarded with the first place title in the Pro Men's division. As a result, Rathy now leads both the Pro Tour and the King of Wake standings lists. Rathy commented on his win by stating, "I'm stoked to get my first win and pumped that I came out on top with another Team Nautique rider, Bob Soven."

In the Jr. Pro Men's division, Team Nautique wakeboarder Bob Soven also had outstanding performances at the Pro Wakeboard Tour stop and emerged as the clear winner with a final score of 98.00 yesterday. Soven's victory marks his second Pro Tour stop win of the '09 season; he continues his lead in the Jr. Pro Men's standings.

"All of us on the Nautique team are thrilled that Team Nautique riders Rathy and Soven emerged as the clear winners at this past weekend's tournament. It is exciting to see our Nautique athletes continue to outperform the competition during the '09 season," stated Correct Craft President/CEO Bill Yeargin. "We have the top wakeboarders and water skiers in the industry who benefit from training behind the world's best boat, Nautique." added Yeargin.
