NAUTIQUE ATHLETES CONTINUE TO DOMINATE THE PRO WAKEBOARD TOUR

Orlando, FLA (June 30, 2009) – This past weekend, in Knoxville, Tennessee, Team Nautique riders performed strong at the Pro Wakeboard Tour stop to claim two first place victories.

Team Nautique rider Aaron Rathy emerged as the first place winner in the Pro Men's division; this marks Rathy's second consecutive Pro Tour stop win of the season. Rathy commented on his win by stating, "I'm super pumped to take the win this weekend and I am looking forward to the rest of the season!"

In the Pro Men's division, Team Nautique wakeboarder Danny Harf also performed well and was awarded the third place win as a result. "It felt great to get back on the podium at the PWT! Aaron Rathy is on fire and it was great to throw down in the finals with the tour leader and a fellow Nautique rider!" said Harf.

In the Jr. Pro Men's division, Team Nautique rider Bob Soven also had outstanding performances and claimed the first place title; this marks Soven's third consecutive Pro Tour stop win of the '09 season. "I'm stoked that I have done so well at the PWT so far this season. It has been great to be on top with other Nautique riders," commented Soven.

"The entire Nautique team is thrilled with our athletes' performances this past weekend," stated Correct Craft President/CEO Bill Yeargin. "It is certainly exciting to see our Nautique athletes use their experience training behind the world's best wakeboard boat, the Super Air Nautique, to continue to dominate the competition in the 2009 season," added Yeargin.
