CORRECT CRAFT NAMES NEW NAUTIQUE DEALER IN CENTRAL INDIANA

Orlando, FLA (February 7, 2008) —Opening its doors in February 2008, N3 Boatworks is proud to be named the newest Nautique dealer for Central Indiana. Built on the solid foundation of exceptional boating and service experiences, N3 Boatworks is excited to help expand the Nautique brand in Central Indiana.

N3 Boatworks will focus on the inboard market niche, offering all customers new and used Nautique boats with the opportunity to trade in their current boat or sell on consignment. N3 Boatworks will also be offering a variety of services for all inboard boats from oil changes to fiberglass repair to specialty fabrication. Additionally, they will be offering indoor, heated boat storage.

The experienced team at N3 Boatworks includes: Mark Dougherty, owner and operator; Luke Wensink, service, sales and fabrication; Ryan Moravec, owner and enthusiast; Brian King, owner and enthusiast; and collaboration with Indy Marine & Auto Body. This team is passionate about boats with a strong focus on customer service.

Correct Craft's President/CEO Bill Yeargin said, "I enjoyed meeting with the N3 Boatworks team early this year. I am confident they will make a great addition to the Nautique family."

The team at N3 Boatworks will open its doors on February 9, 2008 for a grand opening. This will be a great opportunity to see the 2008 Nautique boats and to meet the N3 Boatworks team. N3 Boatworks will also be present at the 2008 Indianapolis Boat, Sport and Travel Show held at the Indiana State Fairgrounds on February 15-24, 2008.
