TEAM NAUTIQUE ATHLETES LLEWELLYN AND PARRISH START THE SKI SEASON OFF WITH BIG WINS

ORLANDO, FLA (March 4, 2008) — Correct Craft's Team Nautique athletes Jaret Llewellyn and Chris Parrish started the 2008 season with impressive wins.

Nine times world champion, Llewellyn, jumped 70.4 meters to break both the New Zealand and Southern Hemisphere ski jump records. Current slalom world record holder, Parrish, also started his season off with an impressive win. Both were competing in the 2008 Lake Crichton Pro-Am this past weekend.

Correct Craft's President/CEO, Bill Yeargin stated "It is exciting to see members of our Team Nautique do so well in competition. It takes an incredible amount of training to win events and Team Nautique athletes get their edge from training behind the industry's best boats." Yeargin added, "The entire Nautique family is proud to be represented by not only Jaret and Chris but also the many others on Team Nautique. Results like this demonstrate once again that the world's best skiers and wake boarders choose Nautique."
