ASSOCIATION FOR CORPORATE GROWTH HONORS CORRECT CRAFT WITH SMART AWARD

ORLANDO, FLA (May 25, 2011) — Today Correct Craft, Inc., producer of the prestigious Nautique boat line, was honored with a SMART Award by the Association for Corporate Growth.

According to the Association for Corporate Growth, a SMART award is given to companies that bring value to their community in terms of corporate culture, growth, business creativity and economic contribution. Correct Craft was nominated for this award by a community banker familiar with the Correct Craft's operations and the company's positive impact on central Florida.

"I am very proud of our team and honored that we were recognized for our contribution to the Central Florida community," stated Correct Craft President/CEO, Bill Yeargin. "We have an incredible team of people who not only want to build the world's best boats for our customers but who also truly care about their community and desire to help make the world a better place; I am thrilled to see our team honored this way." Yeargin added.

Celebrating 86 years of boat building excellence, Correct Craft, Inc. is the producer of the Nautique line of boats. The manufacturer of Nautique is known for delivering superior quality product, cutting-edge technology and exceptional service experiences.
