DAYTONA 500 WINNER TREVOR BAYNE VISITS NAUTIQUE

ORLANDO, FLA (June 30, 2011) — Nautique had a visit yesterday from NASCAR driver and current Daytona 500 Champion, Trevor Bayne.

Bayne who is an avid wakeboarder and a fan of Nautique took time to stop by the world class headquarters before heading to Daytona for this weekend's Coke Zero 400 race. During Bayne's visit he took a factory tour, met with employees, and checked out his new Sublime Green Super Air Nautique 230.

"This was my first visit to the Nautique factory and the overall experience was amazing. From the personalized tour to meeting the team and seeing my brand new Super Air Nautique 230, it was a great experience," commented Trevor Bayne. "I can't wait to have my first set behind it!" added Bayne.

"It was very exciting to have rookie NASCAR sensation Trevor Bayne visit the factory and take time to meet with the Nautique team," stated Nautique President/CEO Bill Yeargin. "It was obvious that Trevor is a big Nautique fan and our team enjoyed meeting him," Yeargin added.
