PAN AM GAMES SELECTS NAUTIQUE AS EXCLUSIVE TOWBOAT

ORLANDO, FLA (August 23, 2011) — Today, Nautique announced they will be the exclusive towboat of the 2011 Pan Am Games Guadalajara. The event will be held at Boca Laguna Ski Club located in Chapala, Mexico on October 20th – 23rd.

The world record breaking Ski Nautique 200 – Open Bow and the Super Air Nautique 230 will be the exclusive towboats for waterski and wakeboard events. These games will display the top ranked athletes in slalom, trick, jump and overall ski plus wakeboard athletes from all over the Western hemisphere.

“The Pan American Organization Committee, which is organized by the Water Ski Pan American Region Confederation, is very excited to have the prestigious Nautique boats as the Official Tow Boat for our upcoming Pan American Games” stated Director Carlos Andrade Garin.

“We are thrilled to have been selected as the official towboat of the Pan Am Games and happy to support the event,” stated Nautique’s President/CEO Bill Yeargin. “We are also happy that the world’s best athletes will be able to compete behind the world’s best boats.” Yeargin added.

The Pan Am Games are, after the Olympics Games, the largest Games in the World and begin on October 14th with the Opening Ceremonies running through October 30th. The PASO authorities are headed by President Mr. Mario Vazquez Raña and the President of Mexico Mr. Felipe Calderon Hinojosa.
