NAUTIQUE AND OWC EMPLOYEES JOIN TEAM NAUTIQUE ATHLETES TO VOLUNTEER AT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

ORLANDO, FLA (February 25, 2013) — As part of its Nautique Cares program, employees from Nautique and the Orlando Watersports Complex (OWC) joined Team Nautique professional athletes for two days last week volunteering at a Habitat for Humanity project in Central Florida.

On the first day the team worked together finishing the framing of the complex. The group consisted of a Nautique employees and Nautique team athletes Rhoni Barton Bischoff, Zack Worden, Danny Harf, Shawn Watson, Shaun Murray, Bob Soven, JD Webb, Mike Dowdy, Emily Copeland Durham and Raimi Merritt. The second day of volunteers included Nautique and Orlando Watersports Complex employees who spent their time installing weather proof wrap on the outside walls of the of the complex.

Nautique team athlete Raimi Merritt commented, “It was such an awesome experience to be able to help our local community with the Nautique family. It means so much to us to be able to help any way we can. We all had a great time, worked hard and I can’t wait to do this again.”

“Our team truly enjoys being involved with Habitat for Humanity as part of our Nautique Cares program,” stated Correct Craft President/CEO, Bill Yeargin. “Last year we had the opportunity to hand the keys to a new homeowner of a home Correct Craft funded and our employees helped build. We intend to do that again this year,” Yeargin added.
