TEAM NAUTIQUE GARNERS TWO FIRST PLACE VICTORIES

Orlando, FLA (June 17, 2009) – Team Nautique athletes Chris Parrish and Danny Harf had impressive performances at the 2009 Pro Slalom Tournament and the 2009 BroStock respectively.

In Catawba, North Carolina this past weekend, current Slalom World Record holder and Team Nautique skier Chris Parrish dominated the Men's Slalom division. In the head-to-head finale, Parrish scored 2.5@41-off earning him the first place title. Parrish commented on his win by stating, "I'm excited about my second win of the season and grateful to Nautique for their support. I feel privileged to be on Team Nautique with the best skiers in the industry."

Meanwhile, at Lake Powell, Team Nautique rider Danny Harf was unbeatable at the 2009 BroStock, ultimately allowing him to take home the first place title. Fellow Team Nautique wakeboarder Bob Soven also had an impressive performance earning him the second place win at BroStock. Danny Harf remarked on his first win of the season, "BroStock was a huge success! I was pumped to come out on top with Bob Soven, another Nautique team rider! And I got my first win after being injured for the last two years."

"The entire Nautique team is thrilled with our athletes' incredible performances recently," stated Correct Craft President/CEO Bill Yeargin. "This is yet another demonstration that Team Nautique is comprised of the leading athletes in the industry," added Yeargin.
