THE SKI NAUTIQUE 200 SETS THREE RECORDS AT THE 50th MOOMBA MASTERS

Orlando, FLA (March 12, 2010) At the recent 50th Moomba Masters, pulled exclusively by Nautique boats, new course jump records were set during the Men's semifinal and night jump. Additionally a third course record was broken during the Junior Men's slalom final. These records were set on the Yarra River behind the revolutionary Ski Nautique 200 – Open Bow.

These records were monumental for the 50th Moomba Masters and for Nautique boats as the revolutionary new Ski Nautique 200 pulled its first professional tournament.

“We are excited at Nautique for the first of many course and world records to be set behind the new Ski Nautique 200,” stated Nautique President/CEO Bill Yeargin. “Congratulations to all of the newly crowned Moomba Masters Champions. We look forward to continuing the great competition behind the Ski Nautique 200 on Robin Lake at beautiful Callaway Gardens during the 51st US Masters in May,” added Yeargin.
